POOL MEMBERS ARE WARNED NOT TO BUY TOBACCO

President Stone Declares Such Practice, Even with Intuit to Sell Thru Cooperative Organization

Violation of Basic Principle of Organization

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 21.—Members of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association have no right to buy tobacco outside the Association and sell it thru the Association, President Stone declares. Such practice, even with intent to sell thru Co-operative Organization, is a violation of the basic principle of the Association. "We have received a number of inquiries the past week," said Mr. Stone, "in regard to whether members of the Association should buy the tobacco of outsiders and turn it over to the Association to be sold and whether it is legal, under the contract, by-laws and Hingham act, for members to purchase tobacco of members of the Association with a view to selling it thru the Association. 'Inasmuch as the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association had for one of its primary purposes the prevention of speculation in the growers' tobacco, such purchases by members of the Association are clearly in violation of the very principle on which the Association is founded. 'At the outset of our organization a resolution was adopted by the board of directors providing that any officer or employee who speculates in tobacco shall be immediately removed from his office or employment. I do not know of any other single factor that could be so harmful to the interests of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association as for our members or employees or officers to buy tobacco, whether from members of the Association or not, and such buying will be deemed good and sufficient reason for terminating the connection of any employee, known to have engaged in it, with the Association. 'There is nothing to our by-laws or our charter, however, to prevent members who desire to aid other members from advancing money on their tobacco, but in each and every case the tobacco must be delivered in the name of the person growing it, and assignment given, and the grower will be paid by the Association whatever is left after paying the loan on the crop. 'We hope that no employee or member of the Burley Association will buy the crop of any member or non-member and if any employee does this, he will be promptly dismissed from the service of the Association. Members are asked to report to the president's office any purchases of crops or offers to purchase crops on the part of members or employees of the Association, so that prompt action may be taken to prevent a continuation of such practices."

Speculators Prices Low

Brandenburg, Ky., Oct. 21.—Judge W. A. Baskett, County Judge of Meade county, in a statement regarding the activities of the tobacco buyers and speculators in this section, said that in his opinion the prices offered by them were about one-half the real value of the crop. The speculators are buying only the choice crops, according to Judge Baskett, and he says that in his opinion, the crops for which they are paying 20 to 25 cents a pound would bring 30 to 50 cents a pound if sold under the co-operative marketing system. Judge Baskett's statement follows:

"I have been chairman of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association since its organization in Meade County, Kentucky. We have quite a number of farmers who pooled their crop last year and the price received for same has been far above their expectation. Not a single person has made a complaint and I sincerely believe the farmers, by pooling their crops this season, will receive a much better price for their crops than they will get on the open market, or from the dealers who are trying to purchase the choice crops. The price offered by local dealers for the choice crops, in my opinion, is about one-half the real value. In other words, I think the crops that are selling for 20 and 25 cents would bring, through the pool, from 30 to 50 cents per pound."

C. E. CONVENTION C. B. Bastin Re-elected Presi- dent

The Ninth District Christian Endeavor Convention was held at the Lancaster Christian Church Saturday and Sunday and was said by many of the State officers who had the honor of attending this Convention that it was without a doubt one of the best Conventions held in the State even the District that some of the larger cities are in.

Over two hundred and fifty delegates were registered with two hundred and twenty present for the meeting and something like two hundred visitors which made over four hundred of the leading and most popular boys and girls to be found in the 9th District which includes Stanford, Harrodsburg, Nicholasville, Richmond, Berea, Hanville, Mt. Vernon, Somerset, Kirksville, Paint Lick and Lancaster.

The report of the President, Mr. Bastin, showed that there were just twice as many C. E. Organizations now in the 9th District that there was one year ago when President Bastin was elected, this alone goes to show that our fellow townsmen is taking an active part in this great work and from the fact that Mr. Bastin was elected to the high honor goes to show that the C. E.'s throughout this District appreciate the earnest and efficient work that he has accomplished and his unceasing energy that he is putting forth for this cause.

Mr. Bastin had some of the best speakers to be found in the State to attend this Convention, among them were Mr. Howard Taylor, of Berea, Ky., who gave a pipe organ recital and spoke on "Service." Dr. Taylor's talk was indeed good and he brought out many points on this subject.

Major Noel Gaines, of Frankfort, chose as his subject, "Is Jesus a Man or a God in the Form of a Man?" Dr. M. A. Hart, of Hanville, spoke on the "Strength of Youth." Dr. W. A. Hopkins, of Louisville, was another good speaker on this program and brought a great message. Mr. Thomas Talbert, who is known as one of the greatest humorists on the American platform was on the afternoon program Saturday. Rev. Vernon Stauffer, who is the Dean of the College of the Bible at Lexington, brought a message to the Endeavors stating that in the years to come when they would grow up into manhood and womanhood to still have this same spirit as they have now in the Convention and to let nothing take them away from Christ.

One of the best and most pleasing numbers was the duet rendered by the little Misses Bastin, who are the attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Bastin. At the close of this successful convention the following were elected to serve the C. E. for another year:

President, Mr. C. B. Bastin, of this City; Vice President, Mr. Vernon Cox, of Mt. Vernon, Ky.; Secretary, Miss Katie Carpenter, of Harrodsburg; Treasurer, Mr. Reuben Webb, of Nicholasville, Ky.; Supt. of the 10th Legion, Miss Martha P. Masters, of Nicholasville; Supt. of Junior Work, Miss Nancy Mae Horne, of Nicholasville; Supt. Intermediate Work, Mrs. Anna Foreman, of Hanville, Ky.; Supt. Jr. Order, Miss Patsy Calmes, of Stanford, Ky.

The Junior band of the Christian church gave a splendid program Saturday afternoon. The delegates were cared for in the homes of Lancaster who were delighted to have these honored guests and who did everything in their power to make the stay of the delegates a pleasant one. Mrs. E. B. Bourland and Mrs. E. C. Gaines were in charge of the entertainment and caring for the delegates and it was the great work that these two ladies accomplished that helped to make this Convention such a success.

Three former Garrard county people who are now connected with the State C. E. work were here for the Convention and were highly complimentary to the local C. E. Organization for their splendid program, they were Miss Georgia Dunn, Field Secretary, Miss Minnie Pherigo, Supt. of the Worthy Service Program and Mr. Lud Fisher, President of the 10th District of Harlan, Ky.

Dull Court Day

Monday was court day here and a small crowd was in town. A little stock was on the market with few buyers. Very little trading of any kind was done, all in all this was one of the quietest days Lancaster has experienced in some time.

CONGRESSMAN RALPH GILBERT

Opens Campaign in Garrard
County

Judge Gilbert Speaks to a Large Crowd

Monday afternoon at the Court House the Honorable Ralph Gilbert, the present Congressman from the 8th District of Kentucky opened his campaign in this county in the interest of his race to succeed himself in the 68th Congress of the United States.

Congressman Gilbert was introduced by his Campaign Manager for this county, Mr. J. W. "Billie" Swope, who stated that the Judge was just the kind of a man needed now to represent this District in Congress. Mr. Swope made a wonderful plea for the present Congressman and pleaded of the many admirers of our Congressman to not let anything stop them from turning out a big vote for Mr. Gilbert on November 7th., and urged upon them to shower Mr. Gilbert with one of the greatest victories ever known to a Congressman from any District to say nothing of this one.

Judge Gilbert after such a worthy introduction given him by our own Mr. Swope, at once launched a brilliant attack on the present administration. High tariff and taxation also received its share of the criticism and the general inefficiency of the present administration was established by facts and figures well and truthfully stated.

Mr. Gilbert made a lengthy speech and assured his audience that if they should see fit to honor him by sending him to Washington to care for their business that he would take the same great pleasure in rendering service to them in the future as he has in the past.

The present and next Congressman expressed regret over the fact that his opponent whom he has never seen had failed to accept the invitation to be present and join in debate. Congressman Gilbert's past record in Congress is a splendid one, he being the only "first timer" serving as Chairman of one of the most important Committees.

Trade at Home

Now that the Fall season is on us and the time is here when we all think of a new suit, hat or outfit, it is a good suggestion that we suggest to first try at home to make your purchase. The merchants this year have one of the best and most elaborate lines of ladies and gents ready-to-wear ever before known in the history of the City and it behooves you as a citizen of Garrard county and the City of Lancaster to visit your local merchants before going elsewhere. Remember it is the local merchant who is trying to serve you in the best manner that he knows how. It is the local merchant who is fighting for the churches, the schools, it is your merchant who works for the interest of the county, the roads and such like and you owe him a debt of buying your merchandise from the one who helps you and he helps you in one way or the other when he stands shoulder to shoulder to you on the many propositions stated above. Think of one in distress, do you go to the merchant in the surrounding places, the larger cities or ask the mail houses to help? No it is the local merchant he is a Druggist, Grocerman, Butcher, Hardware merchant or any business man. He is the one who stands by you, and helps to make our little City what it is today. Let's show him we appreciate it by assisting him.

ARMISTICE DAY Wait for The Biggest Day of The Year

What promises to be one of the biggest days ever pulled off in Lancaster will be staged here on Friday, Nov. 10th., beginning in the early morning. Post Commander Edwards and Adjutant Meadows assisted by Judge B. H. Hayes are putting forth their every effort to make this day a real gala day for Lancaster. Mr. Hayes is chairman of the entertainment and besides the many big events that he will pull will also be a foot ball game between the Stanford High School and the Lancaster High School. This game alone would be worth declaring a holiday and going miles to see.

Gilbert To Speak in Garrard Tuesday

Democratic Candidate for Reelection to Speak in Paint Lick and Bryantsville on Tuesday.

October 31st.

On Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 the Hon. Ralph Gilbert will speak at Paint Lick and at 7:30 P. M. that night he will speak at Bryantsville.

These two speaking dates have been specially arranged, by Billie Swope, who is Chairman of the Democratic Campaign Committee, for the benefit of the Paint Lick and Bryantsville sections of the county respectively.

Mr. Gilbert is an unusually good speaker and we are predicting a large crowd at each place to hear an intelligent discussion of the great issues and a real campaign speech.

Book Notes

The Woman's Club Library places upon its shelves this week the six new books that have been most called for. There is time reading in them for those who hold cards to the library, and it is well worth the price of membership to read any one on the list that follows:

"The Judge" by Rebecca West—A remarkable study of character, second only to the "Scarlet Letter" or "Tess of the D'Urbervilles." "This Freedom" by Hutchinson is a hymn to home—the theme is, woman in her business career; and her highest duty.

"Gentle Julia" Turkinson's story of exuberant youth is certainly entertaining. The scene might have been laid in our town so universal is the local color, and so American is it in touches of home life.

"Robin" by Mrs. Burnell is a continuation of "Head of the House of Coombe"—Of course you will want to finish that grade story. "The Country Beyond" and "Babbitt" are both "best sellers"—read them—they are for your enjoyment and profit.

Transylvania Universi- ty Freshmen

PLAY HERE TOMORROW

The Transylvania University Freshmen eleven will on tomorrow (Friday) arrive in Lancaster to face the undefeated eleven representing Lancaster H. This promises to be one of the best games yet to be played and will prove to be an interesting contest. T. U. from Lexington has one of the strongest College Freshmen teams in the State and will make Captain Cox and his green and white jersey men unwork many of their new plays in order to send the visitors home with the small end of the score. Coach Downing of T. U. is working hard to be the first team to take the local scalp while Coach Heber is having supper served to the men on the turf in order that he may continue the long chain of victories already won by the local eleven. "Doc Rhodes of State will call this game promptly at 3 P. M.

Kicked by a Mule

Little Otto Simpson, the eleven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Simpson, who lives on R. F. D. No. 3, had the misfortune of being kicked by a mule at his home Saturday morning. The lad was rushed immediately to the Danville and Boyle County Hospital, where every attention is being given.

INVITATION To Visit Kentucky University Saturday

Athletic Director Mr. Jno. McRoberts of the Lancaster High School foot ball team received yesterday the following invitation from the Athletic Association of the University of Kentucky of Lexington to bring his entire team over to their City on Saturday to see the "Wildcats" game between the "Wildcats" and Sewanee. The invitation reads as follows:

"Kentucky Vs. Sewanee"

"It is the pleasure of the alumni and the Athletic Association to invite you and your team to be our guests at the foot ball game on Stoll Field Saturday, Oct. 28th.

Mr. McRoberts is now making all arrangements to have Coach Heber to take his State Champions to Lexington.

Judge I. H. Thurman

Speaks in The Interest of The Tobacco Pool

Judge I. H. Thurman, of Springfield, spoke to a large crowd at the Court House Monday afternoon in the interest of the Burley Tobacco Co-operative Marketing Association. Judge Thurman is a forceful speaker and reviewed the work of the Association, declaring that this was one of the greatest organizations in the State and that every farmer and tobacco grower should join in with their friends and help make this 100 per cent strong. Judge Thurman reminded the many people present that the association had carried out all the promises that they agreed to do a little over a year ago and that they would continue to work for the interest of the tobacco grower. A great number of contracts were signed after the speaking.

November 6th. Last Day

With all the Directors of the Burley Co-operative Marketing Association present and by a unanimous vote of these gentlemen the last day to sign the contract and get in this organization will be November 6th., 1922. This date was reached after a somewhat lengthy discussion on the matter and the Directors finally decided that if any grower was waiting to find out how the organization was working had had plenty of time and that no contracts would be received after November 6th., 1922. This was one of the best stands that the Directors have taken and if any one is debating the question whether or not he wishes to join the pool, will have to decide before this date as it was as stated above the unanimous vote of all Directors that no contract would be accepted after November 6th.

Little Babe Called Home

Died, at his home in our city, little Jennings Bryan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Conn.

Death came with friendly care. The opening lead to Heaven conveyed. And bade it blossom there.

The funeral of the little two year old son was held Wednesday afternoon. Rev. H. S. Hudson of the Presbyterian church, conducted the services and spoke in words of tenderest sympathy and comfort of deepest Christian hope and promise. The choir sang with beauty and sweetness.

Like the frost that closes the petals of the beautiful rose, thus the life of this little one passed away at the break of day, to join the other little Angels in Heaven.

This beautiful life was so precious, so fraught with blessings to his parents that he seemed a flower of paradise permitted to bloom for a brief season by their side, then recalled to its native skies, leaving the earth road for them lonely and dark indeed.

He only crossed his little hands. He only looked more meek and fair. We parted back his silken hair. We wove the roses around his brow. White buds, the summer's drifted snow. Wrapt him from head to foot in flowers. And thus he went out of this world of ours.

Card of Thanks

We take this method of expressing our heartfelt appreciation to the relatives and friends who were so very kind and sympathetic during the illness and death of our dear little son, Jennings H. and also those who were so faithful in nursing him and for the beautiful flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Conn.

MADISON HIGH THEIR VICTIM

Crutchfield, The Star of The Afternoon Contest

Huher Crutchfield with Captain Cox and nine of his first string men trotted on the Madison High gridiron last Friday to play the sixth game of the season. On an ideal foot ball afternoon this stellar player with his beloved team mates lined up against a team that easily outweighed them by 12 pounds to the man. "Crutchie" as he is familiarly known and loved started the game at tackle and played as no player has ever played on the Madison turf. As the hours of play rolled by, the dust cleared away, the referee blew his whistle that the matinee was over. Crutchfield was picked up, the scores were runned and "Crutchie" was declared by Coach Heber as being responsible for the great victory that his team won over the Madison High lads by the score of 25 to 0. This game was played in Richmond and all of Lancaster save a few accompanied the State Champions to the Capitol of Madison county to see their favorite lads win their sixth straight victory.

The Madison lads started hitting the line and were gaining at will. This was confusing to Captain Cox but after a few plays he immediately ordered Crutchfield to report to the secondary defense and to hold his line, with the same orders as a Colonel would take from a General in time of war, ever ready and faithful "Crutchie" was has won a berth on the all State eleven at tackle, obeyed the orders of his efficient Captain and held the Richmond boys in their tracks. On the offense he tore thru the much outweighed line and opened up holes for his fellow mates to run through and thus carry the inflated leather over the chalk line that counted for them six points. One of these markers were made in each quarter. Captain Cox kicking one out of the three attempts for the "try for point."

When nearing the goal, the field general attempted a field goal from the 45 yard line and kicked a perfect goal, however the referee stated that he had not called time and so his perfect goal could not be counted.

Following in the shadows of Crutchfield was V. Gastineau, who also played a wonderful game, he making one of the markers, when he brought the spectators to their feet when he made a beautiful end run for 25 yards around the right end and immediately carried the pigskin over the line for 20 yards more around left end. Captain Cox was responsible for a marker as well as W. Robinson, who played his usual good game and who is an open field runner of ability. The fourth and last marker came in the hands of the local boys by V. Gastineau, who followed up the path led by Huher Crutchfield.

Bratton at C was in all the mix-ups as well as his right and left hand men in the persons of Cox, H. C. and Kavanaugh. They were in line with tackles G. D. Robinson and Crutchfield. The wing men were Lawson, Anderson and Estes. This trio played exceptionally good ball and broke up the aerial attack of Madison High. Speake and Henry were in the afternoon's scrap and were cheered on their exceptionally good playing. Their mascot "Bill" dressed in green and white attended to his men in a real southern manner.

Brother Saufley Boosts L. H. S.—
Locals Royally Honored

The L. H. S. foot ball eleven upon returning to Lancaster after winning Friday's game were highly complimentary to Mr. S. M. Saufley, who is one of the best Editors in the State for his kind remarks relative to the local eleven through the columns of the press and to the Faculty the members of the Madison County High School for the entertainment after the game when they served hot chocolate, sandwiches and everything that was good to eat. Every lad who made the trip was loud in their praise for the courteous treatment extended them by Brother Saufley and the Richmond people in general.

Poor Feed Cuts Down Winter Crop of Eggs

Three-fourths of the hens on Kentucky farms would lay more eggs in the winter if they were fed right, according to J. R. Smyth, poultry specialist of the College of Agriculture. This has an important bearing on the profits that farmers make from their flocks because eggs are higher in price in the winter than they are at other times of the year. The flock that produces a large number of eggs during the coming four or five months will pay far more profit on a yearly basis than one that yields the largest number of eggs in the spring and summer months.

"Experiments that have been carried out on the college farm and tests that have been made by farmers of the state show that some form of animal protein, such as milk, meat scrap or tankage, is necessary if hens are to lay the most eggs in winter. If as much milk as a gallon a day for every 30 hens can be had, it is not necessary to feed a dry mash containing this protein. A grain mixture made of 70 parts of corn and 30 parts of oats or wheat should be given along with the milk. It probably will be best for farmers to use wheat along with the corn this winter as Kentucky oats this year turned out to be of poor quality. Ground limestone also should be kept before the hens at all times as this is needed for making egg shells.

"On farms where milk cannot be had, a dry mash made of 40 pounds of corn meal, 20 pounds of bran, 20 pounds of shorts and 20 pounds of tankage that contains at least 60 per cent protein should be used to supply the protein. This mixture should be kept before the hens at all times and a pound of the grain mixture fed for every pound of mash that the hens eat. It is best to feed one-third of the grain in the morning and the other two-thirds at night in a litter of straw of ten to 12 inches deep. When milk is being used to supply the protein, an average of from 12 to 15 pounds of grain should be fed each day for each 100 hens in the flock."

On Oct. 11th, Paint Lick foot ball team went to Richmond and defeated the Eastern Normal "teachers" by the score of 6 to 0. Eastern probably considered it an accident for they readily granted a return game and arrived in Paint Lick Saturday anxious and confident of wiping off the State. Then stock went up quickly for in the first three minutes of play on a lucky fumble from Stone to the waiting arms of Mamous the latter was enabled to cross the line practically unobserved for six and the final points for Eastern. In second quarter T. Davis for Paint Lick carried the ball for a marker and drop kicked the goal. In last quarter F. Hensley got away on a long run for another touch down and Davis again kicked the goal, ending the game. Final score, Paint Lick 14, Eastern, 6. The Eastern boys were simply outclassed thruout the game and went back home convinced. Perhaps Davis shown brightest for Paint Lick but rest of his fellows ran him a close second.

BRYANTSVILLE

Mr. J. L. Watkins, of Lexington, was here Wednesday.

Miss Beale Gully has been visiting relatives in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Harris, of Lexington, visited Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cunningham recently.

Mr. R. S. Brown was in Madison County Friday on business.

Mrs. H. H. Halcomb entertained a few of her friends at dinner Friday.

Several from here were in Danville last week to attend the "Style Show."

Miss Zillah Dawes has been the guest of Mrs. J. L. Butler, in Danville.

Messrs. G. A. Bowling and R. L. Rose have been in Owsley county on business.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hogan Ballard were guests of relatives in Nicholasville Sunday.

Mrs. William Lear, of Lancaster, spent Thursday with her daughter, Mrs. B. C. Rose.

Mrs. B. C. Rose and Mrs. J. Hogan Ballard were in Nicholasville and Lexington Saturday.

Mrs. Sallie Robinson, of Harrodsburg, was the guest last week of Mrs. Belle Tomlinson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bryant spent Sunday at Paint Lick with their daughter, Mrs. B. H. Montgomery.

Messrs. Tom Buser and Ray Paul, of Leesburg, were here Sunday, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Becker and W. H. Boner.

Messrs. H. P. Kincaid and Ed Downing, of Corbin, were here several days last week, the guests of Mr. M. O. Kennedy.

Mr. and Mrs. U. W. Farley, of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Farley, of Jossamine, were here Sunday, the guests of relatives.

Miss Levy Dunn returned to her home in Lancaster Thursday, after spending a month here with Mrs. W. H. Cunningham and other friends.

Messrs. U. M. Dean and H. C. Rutledge delivered a carload of hogs at Cincinnati this week—most of them being purchased for 8 and 8½ cents per pound.

The rain Sunday night and Monday came as a great relief to the farmers in this vicinity. Most all of the small grain had been sown and it needed rain quite badly. Also water for both stock and drinking purposes continues to be very scarce. This drought seems to be one of the worst we have had for a number of years.

The all-day session of the W. C. T. U. Friday at the home of Mrs. C. M. Dean was a very enjoyable affair in every way. Mrs. Dean was a most delightful hostess and a very appetizing lunch was served which added greatly to the social hours. The program was also very interesting and instructive. Dr. Walker of Danville, and Mrs. Lela Cannon, of Nicholasville were guests from a distance and both gave very able and most enjoyable talks.

It isn't to be wondered at that an expert tax dodger hates to die. St. Peter collects in full at the gate.

Degenerating.
In the dream of Nebuchadnezzar it was only the feet that were part of iron and part of clay, but many of us now are getting so rusted in our attitudes that it seems as if, to us, the very heart of us were part of iron and part of clay.—John Ruskin.

Stockings.
The long stockings formerly worn were called hose, when kniss-breeches were introduced the breeches were called upper-stocks and the lower part nether-stocks or stockings. The knitted stocking originated in Italy. It was first brought to England by William Rider in 1444. Woven stockings were devised by William Lee, of St. John's college, Cambridge, in 1589.—Exchange.

THAT DULL ACHING
Don't waste and complain about a bad back—Get rid of it! For week after week, long and aching back, your neighbors know it. Don't! Buy the "Pills" for your backache! Read this statement:
"Mrs. V. P. Jackson, Standard Oil Co. employee, says: 'I had Dean's Kidney Pills when I was suffering with backache and they certainly did me good. I had a dull, nagging ache in the small of my back and sometimes when I got up I was so lame I could not walk. I could hardly get around. My back was so stiff and sore I could not get up. I had to lie down and could not get back to bed. I had to lie down so much about Dean's Kidney Pills I took them and before long I was entirely cured of the trouble. I can certainly recommend Dean's Kidney Pills.'
"Get 60¢ at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Dean's Kidney Pills, the name that Mrs. Brickley had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfg. Buffalo, N. Y."

DEMOCRATIC TICKET FOR CONGRESS
HON. RALPH GILBERT

Right Prevails

There will be no sale of any bonds of Garrard county under the vote taken two years ago in favor of issuing $192,000.00 to aid in the building a Federal highway across the county. When the State and Federal authorities failed to come up to their part, which was fifty-five per cent the project was abandoned. Although it was well known that the overwhelming vote of 1497 to 153 for the bonds to build an asphalt road across the county and for no other purpose at a cost of only 45 per cent to the county, the present Fiscal court conceived the idea that it could and ought to substitute its plans for those voted by the people and sell a portion of these bonds and use the money for general road purposes. The Court was enjoined from carrying out this unfair and unauthorized act and the Fiscal court lost in both the Circuit Court and the Court of Appeals.

The editor of this paper was chairman of the organization that led the fight for the bonds, and was greatly interested in the building of the proposed road. We thought it would be a wise business move as well as business economy for the county. But when the project was abandoned and the present Fiscal Court of the county undertook to prevent the will of the people of the county and sell the bonds for general road purposes in violation of the Court's sacred contract with the people, we joined in the injunction suit in the Garrard Circuit Court to prevent this unlawful and unwarranted act on the part of our Fiscal Court.

When the orders were entered calling for that vote for $192,000.00 in bonds it was stated in the orders and argued from the stump and set out in various editorials in this paper that the proceeds of the bonds could and would be used only for the building of this Federal Highway. When the vote was taken and it was favorable to the bonds, the vote with the orders became a contract between the people and the court and it was an attempt on the part of the Court to violate this sacred contract with the people.

The Court of Appeals in the written opinion handed down took occasion to remark that "It would certainly be inequitable, if not ludicrous" to uphold the contention of the Fiscal Court in its request for a right or privilege to sell the bonds in light of the premises.

We do not think that the Fiscal Court placed itself in a very favorable light before the people of the county in making this attempt to sell these bonds and that it made a mistake in doing so. The Court may need funds in addition to the regular road tax fund to put the roads of the county in proper repair but the orders under which a vote for bonds in the future will be mighty plain and definite as to what will be done with the bond money before the same favorable vote for bonds will be given again in light of the attempted steps on the last vote. Fiscal bodies must keep inviolate contracts with the people if they expect the confidence of their constituency.

We believe that the general public will be pleased that the Fiscal Court was defeated in this litigation with certain taxpayers of the county, among them being the editor of the Record, and that if we are to have a bonded indebtedness for any purpose it must be squarely presented to the voters before it can be incurred.

And Now it is Both Hurrah!

Femininity has spoken, and short skirts are not to be doomed entirely, according to some of the leading modistes.

It is to rest with the women themselves, and especially with the younger set.

If a girl has pipe stem legs, or if her ankles are large and unshapely, she may take refuge behind the long skirt and be quite in style.

But if her limbs are of that beautiful contour which commands admiration and excites envy, then short skirts may continue to be worn and masculinity may continue to stare.

As a matter of fact, it is going to be a hard job to induce a young woman who has been admired for her shapely legs to tuck them out of sight again.

And of a certainty few men can be found who will aid the long skirt movement.

Life is too sweet as it is—for the men.

"Hell and Maria!"

President Harding and General Dawes are close friends, and the general is constantly singing the praises of the chief executive.

Dawes went to New York recently and in the course of a "Hell and Maria" speech characterized congress as a "conglomeration of cowardly peewees"—and congress frothed.

Then he dashed off and dined with the president.

Now the president is out in a statement in which he lauds the work of congress as the best yet, a veritable mountain of constructive achievement—and congress simpered.

Does this disprove the ancient theory that "great minds run in the same channel?"

Or perhaps one of these two divergent minds is not great? Or perhaps they can't find the channel?

"Hell and Maria!"

Why People Suffer From Painful Feet

"Why do so many people suffer today from foot troubles?" This question was asked today of Joseph's.

"Undoubtedly," said Mr. Joseph, "the hard pavements have had much to do with producing broken down arches, extreme tiredness, burning sensations, painful heels, corns, callouses and similar foot discomforts. On the other hand poorly fitting shoes have contributed largely to bring about these conditions."

Mr. Joseph, who has studied foot anatomy under the direction of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl, the nationally known foot authority, says regardless of the cause, there is a remedy for every foot trouble.

Mr. Joseph is now making preparations for his store to participate in what is known as Dr. Scholl's National Demonstration Week. This will be held from Oct. 28th. to Nov. 4th. He explained that thousands of shoe dealers throughout the United States and Canada will make a special effort to relieve suffering and see that persons calling at his store are fitted with comfortable stylish shoes.

In this connection he made the interesting assertion that Dr. Scholl has perfected an appliance for every foot trouble, and that his method of foot correction was scientific, accurate and absolutely dependable. No special shoes were necessary, for with the proper appliance correctly fitted, any shoe, he declared, could be made an anatomical shoe.

"Demonstration Week is going to be a revelation to many people who never dreamed there was such a thing as relief from their foot troubles," said Mr. Joseph. "It has been proven that if the bones of the foot are properly supported, as they are with Dr. Scholl's Appliances, in shoes that fit, they gradually resume their normal position and function in a way that not only provides comfort but maintains the neat, stylish appearance of the shoe."

Mr. Joseph said National Demonstration Week was the time for everybody to be good to their feet.

Church Notice

An old poet says: "All our sorrows spring from forgetfulness of God," and it is true the person who does not go to church is apt to forget God. The special services planned for this church the next two weeks beginning Monday evening at 7:15 are designed for the special purpose of preventing us from the fatal mistake. This is one of the ways we are trying to serve. We extend to all a hearty invitation to attend the meetings.

The Ladies' prayer meetings will be held Thursday evening at 7:15 at the following places: On Danville street, Kinnaird Sisters; on Richmond street, Mrs. J. E. Stormes; on Lexington street, Mrs. S. L. Gibbs, and on Maple avenue, Mrs. H. S. Hudson.

The Men's meeting at the church the same time.

The usual services next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7:15. The Pastor will preach. Come to these services not merely to hear the sermons but to worship God. We are banded together to help bring the Kingdom of God to earth. It's a big job, but more can be done if YOU help.

Baptist Church News

A program will be given by members of the Sunday School next Sunday following the regular session of the school. These exercises will take the place of the regular preaching service and afford an opportunity to emphasize some important phases of our work.

The Juniors meet at 6:15. The Seniors are also urged to come for a special meeting at the close of the Junior service. We appeal to the Christian loyalty of every young person who attends our services to come for the purpose of organizing for our fall and winter work in the B. Y. P. U.

The topic for our prayer service next week will be "The Church and its officers." This service will be conducted by officers of the church and should prove one of the best services in our series of Church membership. Loyalty and love are the church twins that invite us to a splendid year of victory. Put prayer meeting night in your weekly calendar of appointments.

The service Sunday night at 7:15. Topic—"Practical godliness in view of an Approaching Crisis." Please read II Peter 3.

An earnest invitation is extended to all to attend our services.

It's no trouble at all for some people to outline their usefulness.

Some people never know when to quit because they never get started. A head crammed with wisdom is of no value unless it has an outlet.

BUTTERICK PATTERNS WITH THE DELTOR

Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Harris have gone to Lancaster to spend until Monday the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Rice. Miss Thelma Hamilton is spending the week-end with Miss Mary Ellis, in Paris.—Lexington Herald.

One of the week's most pleasant affairs was the tea given Sunday evening, by Mrs. Victor Lear at her home on Lexington avenue. The affair although not large, was one of lovely appointments and was also distinguished by a charm and grace of hospitality for which the hostess is noted. The table had for its centerpiece a crystal basket filled with white and red chrysanthemums and an appetizing repast was served.

The many friends of Mrs. J. A. Conn, Jr., will regret to learn that her mother, Mrs. S. D. Tuggle is seriously ill at her home in Barboursville. Mrs. Tuggle was a recent visitor of her daughter, and went by Crab Orchard for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Payne. The first news Mrs. Conn had of her mother reaching home was a message saying she was suffering from paralysis. Mrs. Conn is with her mother at the present time.

The Woman's Club met Thursday afternoon at the Club rooms on Lexington avenue. Mrs. E. B. Hourland, presided, and after the business session, Prof. Carl Lampert, of the University of Kentucky, was introduced who gave a splendid lecture on "Musical Appreciation" followed by a musical program, with the Professor on the violin, beautifully accompanied by his wife on the piano, which was indeed a great treat and which was received with much applause. About seventy-five were present to enjoy this delightful meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Donelson Rice had for their week-end visitors Mr. and Mrs. William Jefferson Harris, of Lexington. Mrs. Harris was formerly Miss Louise Hornsby, of Eminence, and a class mate of Mrs. Rice. On Monday afternoon Mrs. Rice entertained with a beautiful appointed bridge party at her suburban home, honoring Mrs. Harris. Fall flowers beautified the ever attractive interior and the three card tables were attractively arranged. After several hours, delightfully spent playing bridge a delicious menu was served. The high score prize, a pair of decorated candles was awarded Mrs. J. E. Elmore, the guest prize, a club bowl of blue pottery, was given to Mrs. Robert Kinnaird, and Mrs. Burton Stapp drew the consolation gift, a hand-made handkerchief.

Friends and relatives here have received the following announcement: Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Folger announce the birth of a Twelve pound boy October 19th, 1922. Christened, Gerald Marshall.

The following announcement has been received by Garrard county friends and relatives:

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Wall announce the marriage of their daughter Mary Alice to

Mr. Alfred Marling Mitchell on Tuesday the seventeenth of October Nineteen hundred and twenty two Ironton, Ohio

Wall—Mitchell

The many friends of Miss Mary Wall and Mr. Marling Mitchell will be surprised to learn that they drove to Ironton Tuesday evening and were quietly married in the parsonage of the First Christian Church of that city, the impressive ring service being read at eight o'clock by the pastor, Rev. R. C. Birge.

Miss Wall is the eldest of the two charming daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Wall of Grandview avenue and is a decided brunette. She looked unusually sweet and attractive in her wedding attire, a handsome suit of brown velveteen, with harmonizing accessories, completed by a corsage of bride's roses.

Mr. Mitchell holds a responsible position with the C. & O. Railway, and is well worthy of the bride of his choice. They were accompanied by the bride's parents and sister, Miss Margaret Wall, and Mrs. Mattie Scott, of this city, and were met in Ironton by Mrs. Margaret Hopkins, her son and two daughters, Mr. Charles Hopkins and the Misses Margaret and Ruth Hopkins, life-long friends of the bride, who witnessed the ceremony.

After congratulations and best wishes had been extended, the happy couple, they were driven to Ashland, where they took a C. & O. train East for a visit in Washington, D. C., and other points of interest. They expect to go to housekeeping immediately upon their return to Portsmouth.—Portsmouth News

Without Occupation

We Kentucky women plan our work with most intensive power; The morning finds us up and out at quite an early hour. We do the wash, and feed the chicks and milk a cow or two, Knot Hubby's tie, find Junior's shirt and button Peggy's shoe. The table set, the breakfast get, the dishes wash and dry. We make the beds and sweep the floors and set the yeast to rise. Then we rest a bit and read the news, and by way of recreation, A speech we write—we'll say—for President's night at the General Federation.

Noon time brings the children home and mother rustles lunch; It takes a thriving store to feed that starving bunch. We get the wicker basket out and darn four million socks, Sew hooks and eyes and buttons on, and cut out several frocks.

And every time we settle down, that blooming telephone, Says, "Oh, we've just made you the chairman, dear, for our Old Ladies' Home!"

Or "Church Circle Number Twenty-three will meet with you on Sunday."

Say, "Won't you bake a layer-cake for the Woman's Club Monday?"

Then, husband, dear, comes skipping home and brings a college chum, Cries, "Hurry up, get on your things, we're going to have some fun." So we wash and iron six babies and park them in a row, And bribe the next-door neighbor's cook to watch'em while we go. The Opera, Movies, Vaudeville—oh, just so we have our fling, And then we jazz a couple of miles and eat some lobster thing. So when midnight comes we amble home, quite happy with our day, For we feel our greatest power lies, in mixing work and play.

We think we are the busiest folk in all this wide creation, Yet the census taker writes us down as "Without occupation." —Florence Leigh Reynolds.

The above was the clever speech made by Mrs. H. G. Reynolds, of Paducah, President of the Kentucky State Federation of Women's Clubs, on President's night at the meeting last summer of the General Federation of Women's Clubs.

Prof. Threlkeld

Pardoned

Prof. T. B. Threlkeld of Nicholasville, sentenced to life imprisonment in 1921 for the murder of Arthur Denman, was pardoned by Governor Morrow. He was 75 years old at the time of conviction by a Mercer county jury.

Belief that the aged professor was suffering from a deadly disease, and that he "had paid the full penalty which even the sternest justice could demand," prompted the pardon, according to the statement issued by Governor Morrow. Petition for the pardon was signed by more than 2,000 persons, the Governor said, including ministers, court officials, farmers and at least 500 women.

Prof. Threlkeld killed Denman following an altercation in a store in Nicholasville.—Harrodsburg Herald.

Calling a spade a spade may be commendable, but using it accomplishes more definite results.

Small Blaze

A fire alarm was turned in from the residence of Mr. John Adams, who resides on Lexington street, Thursday and in some manner the call was answered and the fire fighting apparatus was sent to the home of Mr. Jack Adams on Richmond street. Fortunately the blaze was easy to put out or he would have had quite a damage on the account of answering the call correctly. Can't we take a lesson from this and divide the City into Districts in order that Chief Bratton may be able to tell in an instant just where to send his fire fighting apparatus?

ARCH PRESERVER SHOE

For the Perfect Foot—

You who have perfect feet quite likely do not appreciate the fact. You have always had them—you see no reason why your feet should fail you. Yet seven people out of every ten have weak or fallen arches.

Value your perfect foot and keep it perfect for all times—wear the ARCH PRESERVER SHOE with the concealed bridge which comfortably and properly supports and keeps the arch in normal shape.

If your feet are perfect the ARCH PRESERVER SHOE will keep them perfect, if they are not, this shoe will help them.

Good Seed.

Corn Plentiful

PROPER STORAGE IMPORTANT

Weather conditions in Kentucky this summer and early this fall have been such that farmers of the state should have no trouble in gathering plenty of first class seed corn, according to E. N. Fergus, a member of the soils and crops department of the Kentucky Agricultural Experiment Station. The biggest seed corn problem right now is to get the grain dried out and stored in a good place before freezing weather comes. Much valuable time that would be lost in making extra germination tests in the spring can be saved by taking a little time now to make sure that seed corn is properly stored.

"The important point in storing seed corn is to place the ears where air can circulate around each one of them and at the same time to make them safe from rats and mice. On the average farm, about the only way to protect stored seed from these pests is to hang it in the top of cribs, sheds, attics or dry basements. The ears can be strung on hinder twine or hangers can be made of wire fence. If desirable, wire hangers can be bought at reasonable prices.

There are various ways of storing seed to provide ideal drying conditions, such as shelves, drying-racks and posts studded with nails upon which the ears are strung. The chief requirement is to have plenty of space between the ears so that they can be bone dry before freezing weather. There is not much danger of injuring the germination of the seed by storing it in a room that is kept at a temperature of 70 degrees throughout the winter, although high temperature that would dry the corn out exclusively are to be avoided.

Business in The South Again on the Upgrade

Washington, D. C.—"Business in the South is again on the upgrade," says Fairfax Harrison, president of the Southern Railway Company. In his annual report which has just been made public.

"The output of the mills and factories has been steadily increasing during the past few months," the report continues. "An outstanding feature has been the operation of the cotton mills, a happy contrast with the strike-ridden cotton manufacturing centers of the East.

"In July, 1922, according to figures compiled by the United States Census Bureau, 95.97 per cent. of the spindles in mills in the cotton producing states were active, while in other states the percentage of active spindles was only 78.53. During that month the average active spindle hours in the South was 250 compared with 145 in other states. In the twelve months ended July 31, 1922, the mills in the cotton producing states consumed 3,733,147 bales, which compares with a consumption of 2,178,767 bales by mills in the other states.

"The more favorable conditions for the cotton manufacturing industry in the South are reflected not only in operating statistics but also in the record of new mill construction. During the same twelve months, according to the Census Bureau reports, there was a net increase of 215,841 spindles in Southern mills and a net increase of only 79,827 spindles in mills in states outside of the South. A survey of new mills under construction, or in process of construction, a continuation of the increasing activity in this industry.

"There has been unusual activity in the production of new buildings and commercial structures as well as the construction of improved highways."

Blackheaded Pimples Quit With S.S.S.

Why? Pimple-Poison Goes When Red-Blood-Cells Increase! S. S. S. Builds These Red-Blood-Cells.

You can be sure of this, nature has no substitute for red-blood-cells. Pimple-poison can't live in the red rivers of your blood as long as there are enough rich red-blood-cells in it. More red-blood-cells!

The shame of a blemished face!
That is what you need when you see pimples starting at you in the mirror. Black-headed pimples are worse! Seems to worse yet! You can try everything under the sun,—you'll find only one answer, more cell-power in your blood! The tremendous results, produced by an increase in red-blood-cells is one of the A. B. C.'s of medical science. Red-cells mean clear pure rich blood. They mean clear, ruddy, lovable complexions. They mean nerve power, because all your nerves are fed by your blood. They mean freedom forever from pimples, from the blackhead pest, from boils, from eczema and skin eruptions, from rheumatism, impurities, from that tired, exhausted, run-down feeling. Red-blood-cells are the most important thing in the world to each of us. S. S. S. will build them for you. S. S. S. has been known since 1892, as one of the greatest blood-builders in the world. Good Equipment To Help Farmers in Short Course

Farm men and boys of the state, who attend the annual winter short course in agriculture which opens Nov. 1st., at the College of Agriculture will have the advantage of equipment that should make it possible for them to get many pointers on better farming, according to Thomas P. Cooper, dean of the college. A large farm, herds of pure bred live stock, flocks of pure bred poultry and the results from soil experiment fields in different parts of the state will be put to use in showing those who attend the short course how the farm back home can be made a little better.

Work in connection with soils, the raising of crops, orcharding, beef cattle, hogs, sheep, dairy cattle and poultry is being carried out on the college farm of 243 acres which is near the university campus. On this farm also are beef cattle barns, a dairy barn, sheep barn, poultry house, a hog chedera serum plant, a laboratory and hospital for the study of animal diseases, a large livestock judging pavilion, a farm pavilion, a farm machinery and gas engine laboratory and a greenhouse.

In addition to this farm, the college operates eight soil and crop experiment fields on different soil areas of the state. The results that have been obtained in these fields in raising crop yields through the use of different fertilizers will be studied and their relation to the soils of the various regions represented by the students explained.

The college also owns herds of pure bred dairy and beef cattle as well as pure bred hogs, sheep and Percheron horses. A large, well equipped poultry plant in which many different breeds of poultry are handled also is a part of the farm equipment. Further study of livestock problems is made possible by the many famous breeding establishments to be found within a short distance of Lexington.

The first term of the course will continue until Dec. 21 while the second term will open Jan. 3, 1923, and continue until Feb. 24th. Students may take either or both of the terms of work.

Farm Boy Makes His Calf Gain 100 Pounds A Month

Baby beef club members in almost every part of the state are putting the finishing touches on the calves, which they will enter in the first annual fat and feeding cattle show and sale to be held at the Bourbon Stock Yards, Louisville, Nov. 23rd. and 24th., according to M. S. Garside, assistant state leader of junior agricultural club work at the College of Agriculture, who has charge of this project. Between now and the time of the show, the young feeders plan to put about 150 pounds more weight on their calves.

Despite the fact that the baby beef project is one of the new ones started this year by the college club department for country boys and girls of the State, it has been highly popular with the youngsters. Some of the young feeders have been feeding their calves since February and March. As a result of the good feed and care which has been given them, a number of the calves are showing the qualities of prime baby beefes.

One of these is owned by Ernest Cobb, a member of the club in Boyle county. This calf has gained 100 pounds a month since Ernest started feeding it in February and when 15 months old weighed 1,240 pounds.

Calves being fed by Trimble county boys also have been making good gains. These animals averaged about 350 pounds each at the time they were bought but the boys hope to make them average about 950 pounds each before the show. Warren county with 35 boys feeding calves, claims the largest county baby beef club in the state.

Boyle, Marion, Washington, Lincoln, Trimble, Union, Todd and Warren counties are among those expected to have calves in competition for the $1,475 that will be offered as prize money in the club classes at the show. All but $200 of this money will be divided among the winners in five rings while that amount will be made in special awards. The club members are expected to have about 12 carloads of 16 calves each in the competition.

If you can't move forward in life, stand still. There at least will be a few who will not pass you.

To Keep a Window Up.

A simple and practical device for supporting windows that have no weights attached is made as follows: Take two double-pointed tacks and drive into the frame, one outside and one inside the window. Drive them in only half way. Then insert a long nail and let the window rest on the nail. The tack next to the nail should be a little higher than the other, so the nail will not slide out and should be on the inside of the window. By having two or three sets of these tacks on a frame you can have your window raised to as many different places.

Tobacco Contract Breaking Stopped In Carolina Belt

Court Enjoys Two Prominent "Dump-ers" From Delivery of Any More of Their Leaf to Independent Growers

LEXINGTON, KY.—Officials of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association received a telegram stating that the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association had won its injunction suit to prevent the "dumping" of tobacco by two prominent members of the bright belt pool and that other growers who had broken their contract in that territory voluntarily came to the Association offices and offered to pay the liquidated damages provided for in the contract.

The result of this suit is of interest in Kentucky because of the approaching trial of the damage suit against Garrett Watts, wealthy Fayette grower, who is charged with "dumping" 70,000 pounds of tobacco pledged to the pool and whose case will come up for hearing at the next term of the Bourbon Circuit Court.

Following the decision in the Rindge company case in California, in which damages of $21,000 were awarded the California Bean Growers' Association, the decision in the North Carolina case is regarded as being of paramount importance to the co-operative organizations throughout the country. The Rindge company failed to deliver its crop of beans and the courts held the contract valid and gave the association members damages of $21,000.

To Demand Damages

The North Carolina case will be followed by a claim for damages on the part of the association against the two members who have been enjoined from delivering any more tobacco to the loose leaf warehouses. Each had already delivered 5,000 pounds when enjoined from further deliveries and both must now deliver their tobacco to the association.

Director John H. Winn, of Versailles, who also is a member of the executive committee of the Burley Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association, was in Lexington Thursday and said that tobacco growers of Woodford and Franklin counties, which constitute his district, have been signing up the contract the past week to have their tobacco sold this year through the co-operation.

Director Winn and Robert S. Walker, who was the county chairman in Woodford county during the organization campaign, spoke at Millville to a crowd of about 50 farmers. All but six of these previously had signed the contract and half of the six signed up. At Switzer, Franklin county, where Mr. Winn spoke, only four out of the 60 present had not signed and two of these came in after the meeting.

Outsiders Come in

Director Winn said that the big tobacco sale had been of immense help in bringing in outsiders, as one of the stock arguments of the opposition had been that growers would be compelled to hold their crops, probably for a long time. He said he believed only a few growers in either of his counties would be out by the time the books close November 5th.

E. M. Mansfield, of Carrollton, who has been working in Spencer county, Ind., with the local organization, said that Chairman Elmer Brand had obtained 212 dark tobacco and 115 burley tobacco contracts in that county, about 75 per cent of the burley growers and 50 per cent of the dark tobacco producers. The acreage signed was 375 burley and 800 dark. Workers are confident they will have 90 per cent before the closing of the books.

Nashville, North Carolina.—The Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Association won a signal victory in circuit court today when Judge Frank Daniels enjoined Z. A. Harrell and W. F. Jones, members of the Tobacco Growers' Co-operative from selling any more of their tobacco, and ruled that their contract with the tobacco association is legal and binding and requests them to deliver their tobacco to the association.

The case was one of the hardest fought before a court of equity in North Carolina. The tobacco co-operative was represented by Aaron Sapiro and Lawrence Levy, of San Francisco, James H. Pou, of Raleigh, Steven C. Hragaw, of Washington, and W. T. Joyner, of Raleigh.

The hearing of the case consumed three days, and at its conclusion, Judge Daniels declared that he had never had a case in his court which "involved greater issues or one that had been discussed with more ability and learning by counsel." Some of the ablest lawyers in North Carolina represented the defense. The opponents of the association recognized that it was a crucial case, which, if won, they would break down the association. Judge Daniels had the case under advertisement for two days.
